

---

CALUMET STORMWATER COLLABORATIVE

Agenda – October 3, 2014
10:15am– 12:15pm

South Suburban Mayors and Managers Assn.
1904 174th St, E. Hazel Crest

- Introductions
Josh Ellis, Metropolitan Planning Council
- Information exchange
  - How the City of Chicago uses data and decision-support tools to form stormwater management priorities:
    - Aaron Koch, Dept. of Water Management, City of Chicago
    - Michael Berkshire, Dept. of Planning and Development, City of Chicago
  - How SSMMA's GIS Consortium supports stormwater management decision making:
    - Dennis Latto, South Suburban Mayors and Managers Association
  - Follow-up discussion
- Networking Break
- Work group in focus: Short-term information sharing and long-term research alignment
Aaron Koch, City of Chicago
  - What other existing data or information should we share amongst each other?
  - What new data or information should we gather through new research?
- Collaboration Now!
Zhanna Yarmakov, Chicago Park District
- Member updates
- Adjourn

Next Meeting

Friday, November 7, 9:00am to 11:00am
Calumet Water Reclamation Plant
400 E. 130th St., Chicago
(Optional facility tour to follow)

For more information contact:
Josh Ellis
Metropolitan Planning Council
312.863.6045
jellis@metroplanning.org